

FROM LAND

TO MOUTH

Connecting People to Place, Taste & Story

Tickets available online:
www.gardensforhumanity.org
or by mail:
P.O. Box 1202,
Sedona, AZ 86339

Also at the following outlets:

COTTONWOOD

Desert Dancer
Jerona Café

SEDONA

Crystal Magic
Golden Word Bookstore

FLAGSTAFF

CSA Store on West Cottage
Crystal Magic

For more information,
contact: Ruth Hartung,
928.451.4632
vicepresident@
gardensforhumanity.org

$20 in advance,
$25 at the door

$15 seniors/students
$50 or $100 Meet & Greet

5:30 – 6:30 pm

Includes priority seating. At the $100 level, receive signed copies of Gaia's Garden & Chasing Chiles: Hot Spots Along the Pepper Trail, Dr. Nabhan's new book.

Spring Planting Festival
Partners will be on hand to share information and updates on the Verde Valley's food and sustainability programs. Books by Dr. Nabhan and the new edition of Gaia's Garden will be available for purchase.

AN EVENING WITH

Gary Paul Nabhan, PhD and Toby Hemenway

Sunday, March 13th, 2011 7:00 – 9:30 p.m.

St. John Vianney Church
180 Soldiers Pass Road Sedona, Arizona

Dr. Nabhan is an internationally celebrated author and educator, seed saver, conservation biologist and sustainable agriculture activist who has been called, "the father of the local food movement" by Mother Earth News.

Mr. Hemenway is the author of Gaia's Garden: A Guide to Home-Scale Permaculture, which for the last seven years has been the best-selling permaculture book in the world. He is one of the leading educators on permaculture and teaches throughout the country.

Hosted and moderated by local seedsman Bill McDorman, President of Seeds Trust.

A Benefit for Gardens for Humanity

Gardens for Humanity is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting environmental education through the creation of school and community gardens. Our gardens help foster a healthy quality of life and maintain sustainable communities.

This event is part of Gardens for Humanity's

3RD ANNUAL

Spring Planting Festival!

For a list of all events, go to:

www.gardensforhumanity.org